Transforming lives through education

Tuesday, March 24

12:00pm

History Detectives – 4th thru 8th grade

What do the violent images on this pamphlet mean? Wes Cowan decodes the message and the strategy behind a U.S. World War II propaganda leaflet. Then, Gwen Wright traces a cherished family heirloom, a watercolor, to the world of Tiffany stained glass. How did Tiffany open a window of opportunity for early 20th century women? A touching eulogy stitches together the lives of two Americans who fought in the Spanish Civil War. Almost a century later, Tukufu Zuberi unites a nephew and a son of those soldiers.

their perspective on why your family heirloom is special.

- Create your own stain glass pattern.
- Research and create a timeline for the Spanish Civil War.
- Create a propaganda pamphlet for the Spanish Civil War.

- Research Tiffany glass at <https://www.morsemuseum.org/on-exhibit/secrets-of-tiffany-glassmaking>. What types of glassware are popular?
- Choose one type of Tiffany glass and create a presentation explaining what you learned about how it is made.
- Choose a faux stained glass art activity to complete from <https://buggyandbuddy.com/16-faux-stained-glass-crafts-for-kids/>

- Imagine you own a small gallery in your hometown. You have decided to feature a stained glass exhibit of five original pieces of art. Gather five stained glass pieces of artwork from you and/or your family and friends that illustrate one unifying theme. Display the art in the most creative and interesting way you can think of and take a picture of your exhibit. How would you promote it so others would want to come view your exhibit?
